COMPETITIONS FOR TITLES,
AWARDS OF HONOR CERTIFICATES

The Ministry of Public Health of the USSR and the central committees of trade unions of workers in the chemical, machine-building, and construction materials industries have stipulated the conditions for competition in enterprises of the medical industry for the titles: "Best Shop Foreman," "Best Section Foreman," "Best Shift Foreman," "Best Technologist," "Best Shift Chemist," and "Best Skilled Workman."

The high titles will be awarded to foremen of shops, sections, and shifts and skilled workmen who can increase the amount and quality of production by better utilization of equipment, saving time by improved techniques, by reducing the norms for expenditures of stock and materials, etc.

The technologists and shift chemists will be required to take active part in perfecting the operational techniques, increasing finished production yields, introducing new production, reducing breakage, saving materials, etc.

The winners of the competition will receive a monetary award. The production directors who consistently (not less than two quarters in succession) retain the high title will be awarded the title "Excelling in Public Health."
